Internship Opportunity

Multiple Opportunities Available

THIS MAY BE THE OPPORTUNITY FOR YOU! A LITTLE BACKGROUND HISTORY

The California State Library was Founded in 1850 and is the state's information hub, preserving California's cultural heritage and connecting people, libraries and government to the resources and tools they need. The State Library has an extensive collection of documents from and about the state's rich history. The library also holds federal and state publications and is home to the Bernard E. Witkin State Law Library and the Braille and Talking Book Library.

Internship Summary

The collection of the California State Library contains many historically significant documents and artifacts. The intern will support the input of content into online exhibits to increase public awareness of the collection. Interns will research online exhibit platforms and curation tools and gain experience by contributing to or completing online exhibits that support physical exhibits created by the Library.

The intern assisting with these new online exhibits will not only learn much about interesting aspects of the library's collections, online exhibits, and digital curation tools, but will also help make library materials accessible to the general public.

If you are interested in discovering the unique collections held within the walls of the California State Library, how they are made available to the public, and helping make history come alive in a meaningful way, this could be the opportunity for you!

The Intern will report to the Museum Curator III of the Preservation Section.
